Wheat, Old Corn, and Maryland Tobacco,

PURCHASED BY
Oct 4 LAWRASON & FOWLE.

Mr. Editor,

KNOWING that there is a number of the most worthless of society, who make it a business to spread evil reports respecting the solvency of banks in the different parts of the United States, for the purpose of depreciating and purchasing their paper, I feel it is my duty to give a list of the Banks of the District of Columbia, that it may be made known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the said Banks do pay specie for their notes, on demand, and that they are justly entitled to the highest credit and standing, and that they are opposed to a suspension of specie payments, and will be the last in the country that will agree to such a measure. This communication is made to prevent imposition, and to inform all persons who may have the paper of those banks, in any part of the Union, that they may hold it as so much specie. Persons emigrating and travelling north, south or west, would do well by taking the notes of those banks, as they will always find them equal to specie, and often to command a premium of 5 to 10 per cent, for remittances to Baltimore, Philadelphia & New-York. To my numerous acquaintances (trading men,) and the community, I pledge myself for the foregoing.

The following are the banks of this district that pay specie for their notes on demand, viz:
The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown,
Central Bank of Georgetown & Washington,
Union Bank of Georgetown.
Bank of Columbia,
Bank of the Metropolis,
Patriotic Bank of Washington,
Bank of Washington,
Bank of Alexandria,
Union Bank of Alexandria,
Farmers' Bank of Alexandria,
Bank of Potomac,
Branch Bank of the United States at Washington.

I hold myself responsible for the foregoing declaration to the public. Done at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown, this 26th day of May, 1819.

Editors of newspapers throughout the United States, by giving the above a few insertions, will greatly benefit the community. R. R.

SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1819.

From the New-York Evening Post, May 29.

Sir Philip Sidney, said, as Addison tells us, that he never could read the old ballad of Chevy Chase, without feeling his heart beat within him, as at the sound of a trumpet. The following lines, which are to be ranked among the highest inspirations of the Muse, will suggest similar associations in the breast of the gallant American officer.

THE AMERICAN FLAG.

When Freedom, from her mountain height,
Unfurl'd her standard to the air,
She tore the azure robe of night,
And set the stars of glory there!
She mingled with its gorgeous dyes
The milky balric of the skies,
And striped its pure celestial white
With streakings of the morning light;
Then, from his mansion in the sun,
She call'd her eagle barrier down,
And gave into his mighty hand
The symbol of her chosen land!

Majestic monarch of the cloud!
Who rear'st aloft thy regal form,
To hear the tempest-trumping loud,
And see the lightning-lances driven,
When stride the warriors of the storm,
And rolls the thunder-drum of heaven!
Child of the Sun! to thee 'tis given
To guard the banner of the free,
To hover in the sulpher smoke,
To ward away the battle stroke,
And bid its blendings shine afar,
Like rainbows on the cloud of war,
The harbingers of victory!

Flag of the brave! thy folds shall fly,
The sign of hope and triumph high!
When speaks the signal trumpet-tone,
And the long line comes gleaming on,
(Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet,
Has dim'd the glist'ning bayonet,)
Each soldier's eye shall brightly turn
To where thy meteor-glories burn,
And, as his springing steps advance,
Catch war and vengeance from the glance!
And when the cannon-mouthings loud,
Heave in wild wreathes the battle-shroud,
And gory sabres rise and fall,
Like shoots of flame on midnight's pall!
There shall thy victor-glances glow,
And cowering foes shall sink beneath,
Each gallant arm that strikes below,
That lovely messenger of death.

Flag of the seas! on ocean's wave
Thy stars shall glitter o'er the brave,
When Death, careering on the gale,
Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail,
And frighted waves rush wildly back
Before the broad-sides reeling rack,
The dying wanderer of the sea
Shall look at once to heaven and thee,
And smile to see thy splendors fly,
In triumph, o'er his closing eye.

Flag of the free hearts only home,
By angel hands to valour given!
Thy stars have lit the welkin dome,
And all thy hues were born in Heaven!
Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

FOREIGN NEWS.

Liverpool, April 24.

SIR,

With the exception of some little demand for export, the cotton market has been in a very depressed state throughout the week, and lower prices have been submitted to. Boweds, of inferior quality, have been sold at 11d and middling fair, at 12d. Good cotton offers from 12¼d to 13d without finding buyers, (except in small quantities to spinners) and we reduce our quotations accordingly. The sales of the week amount about 6860 bags, and consists of 90 Sea Island, 2s 1d a 2s 5d to 3s for extra fine Butler's St. Simon's 40 stained, 15½d a 19d; 2310 Boweds, 11d a 13d; 300 Orleans, 12¼d a 14½d; 1430 Pernambuco, 16½d a 18½d 700 Bahia, 16d a 16½d; 1200 Maranham, 16d a 16½d; 10 Surinam, 19d; 30 Surat, 8¼d a 9d; 750 Bengal, 6½d a 7¼d per lb. of which about 700 bags have been taken for export say 500 Bowed, from 11¼d a 12¼d; 100 Orleans, 13d; 50 Pernams, 18½d; and 53 Bahia, 15½d in bond. A few parcels have been taken on speculation, among which are 450 common Perunms, 16½d the remainder has gone to the trade.

The public sales of plantation sugar this week consist of 500 casks Demerara and 300 casks Jamaica, the whole of which went off at former prices, with the exception of brown descriptions, which are 1s per cwt lower; the sales by private have been very inconsiderable. 700 bags Bengal sugar were brought forward by auction on Wednesday, and 120 bags sold at 36s 3d a 37s per cwt the remainder were withdrawn, but have since been sold by private contract at 37s a 38s per cwt. duty paid; 200 bags were also offered yesterday, and the whole bought in at 31s 9d per cwt. Two public sales of molasses have been attempted this week, consisting of 75 puncheons Trinidad and 200 puncheons Demerara, but no business done, the former having been taken in at 27s 3d and the latter at 29s per cwt. We have no transactions to notice in rum, ginger, pimento, or cocoa. A parcel of 500 bags and 50 casks St. Domingo coffee was put up at auction on Wednesday, to be sold peremtorily, and was bought with all faults at 90s a 91s per cwt. but we do not alter our general quotations in consequence, as there is nothing now offering on the market below the annexed currency, at which rates several small lots plantation Coffee have been disposed of to the grocers. The only transactions in dyewoods consist of a few small parcels to the trade at our quotations. Very little doing in rice, a few casks fine new Carolina in bond have been sold at 28s per cwt. and 50 casks old brought at public sale 21s a 21s 6d per cwt in bond. 80 casks new Baltimore flaxseed were sold at £5 per hhd. There has been some enquiry for good Boston pot ashes, but holders are unwilling to sell at present rates; Montreal pots are less sought after, and may be bought freely at our quotations. Nothing doing in pearl ashes. 200 barrels Carolina tar have been disposed of at 15s per bbl. There is more inquiry for turpentine; 12s 6d per cwt. has been refused for a parcel of fair quality.—A lot of 1500 barrels fresh New-York flour was put up at auction on Tuesday, when 1200 barrels found purchasers at 35s a 35s 3d per bbl; 500 barrels old Philadelphia sweet flour were also offered yesterday, and all withdrawn except 50 barrels sold at 34s per bbl. About 500 barrels new Baltimore flour in bond have been taken for export at 38s per barrel. We reduce our quotations of tobacco, which has been selling to the trade in small quantities at the annexed rates; 200 hhds. Kentucky and low Virginias have been sold for export at 3¼d a 5d per lb.

We remain, respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servants,

From the London Times, April 15.

The Paris journals received yesterday announce the confirmation of the rumour which we have already noticed, respecting the timely discovery of a plot to carry off the Emperor of Austria by poison. This plot was to have been executed at Rovigo. More than 200 persons have been arrested in consequence. We see with regret, that attempts are making, even at this early period of speculation, on the authors and motives of the crime, to charge it on the friends of liberty in general, because the sect of Carbonari have so much vanity, or so much hypocrisy, as to class themselves amongst the number. If so, there never can be a political offence, whether perpetrated or intended by any man or any party, that may not be turned into an engine of oppression against the community at large. Suppose the Emperor of Austria, humane and upright as he is, should actually have fallen a victim to a worthless band of conspirators, ought it to be endured, that the feelings and habits, the wishes and rights, and claims of the whole body of his Italian subjects, should be sacrificed to the mean and foolish policy of treating them as a people of assassins? If there be grievances to redress in Italy, or discontents to remove, or even prejudices which call for indulgence, the Austrian government must be utterly infatuated, if it fail to unite, by all generous means, the affections of a people so recently and so reluctantly yielded to its unlooked for dominion. The Italians, particularly those of the north, have made powerful advances within twenty years, both in the arts of life, and in the knowledge of their political interests and duties. The upper circles of society throughout that country contain some of the most enlightened men in Europe. High and low, they have much addicted themselves to the cultivation of a national spirit. They ought not to be, they cannot be, governed on the same principles, as the German part of the Austrian empire. The cabinet of Vienna should look to this in time. We are assured, on the grave authority of the Gazette de France, that Mr. Canning and the Duke of Wellington are soon to be called to the head of a new (English) administration.

The tobacco monopoly has been sanctioned for seven years to come, by a majority in the chamber of deputies, of 140 votes to 78.

ALEXANDRIA:
SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1819.

Although M. Mirabeau is not one of those whom we regard as good authority in matters touching religion, there is in the following fragment of a speech of his upon the subject of religious toleration, so much eloquence and ingenuity, that we think it well worth its share of room in the columns of our public prints. It was spoken by that illustrious orator in the national assembly, on the 23d of July, 1789—on the celebrated declaration of the rights of a man and a citizen.

"Gentlemen,

I yesterday had the honor of submitting to you some reflections, which tended to demonstrate that religion is a duty, and not a law, and that the only thing that belongs to the declaration about which we are occupied, is to proclaim religious liberty with a loud voice.

Very little has been opposed to the motion of M. de Castellane, (viz. that no person shall on any pretext whatever be disturbed on account of his religious opinions) —and indeed what can be objected against an axiom so evident in its own nature, that the contrary is an absurdity! We are told that religion is an object of exterior police; that in consequence it belongs to a society to regulate it, and to permit one species, and prohibit another. I demand of those who assert that religion is an object of police, whether they speak as Catholics or as Legislators? If they urge this as Catholics, they allow that religion is an object of regulation, and that it is something purely civil: but if it is civil, it is a human institution—and if it is a human institution, it is fallible. Man can then change it: from this it must follow, according to them, that the Catholic religion is not a divine institution, and, according to me, that they are not Catholics.

If they start this difficulty as legislators, I have a right to speak to them as statesmen; and I shall first tell them that it is not true that religion ought to be subjected to the police, although Nero and Domitian have said so, on purpose to interdict christianity.

Religion consists in prayers, in hymns, in sermons, in divers acts of adoration rendered to God by men, who assemble in common; and it is absurd to assert, that an inspector of the police ought to regulate Collects and Litanies: that which belongs to the police, is to prevent any person from troubling public order and tranquillity. It is on that account that it watches in your streets, around your houses, and about your temples; but it never presumed to regulate what you do there: all its power consists in preventing your actions from hurting your fellow citizens.

I also think it absurd, on purpose to prevent the disorder which might grow out of your actions, that your actions themselves should be prohibited. Assuredly it is a very expeditious mode,—but I may be permitted to doubt whether any state has a right to make use of it. We are allowed to form assemblies, circles, clubs, lodges of free masons, and societies of all kinds. It is the business of the police to prevent these assemblies from disturbing the public order; but certainly it never can be imagined that to prevent such assemblies from troubling the public order, the best way would be to prohibit them. Be careful lest any worship, even your own, shall disturb the public tranquility: that is your duty—but you cannot exceed it. They speak to you incessantly of a predominant or established religion—predominant! Gentlemen, I do not understand that expression, and it is absolutely necessary that it should be defined to me. Is it a tyrant religion that they would inculcate? But you have banished this word, and men who have asserted to themselves the right of liberty, will not reclaim that of oppression!

Is it the religion of the sovereign that they would enforce? The sovereign has no right to domineer over consciences, or to regulate opinions.

Is it the religion of the majority? Religion is an opinion: this or that religion is the result of this or that opinions: new opinions are not the result of suffrages. Your thoughts are your own—they are independent—you cannot even mortgage them!

In fine, an opinion which may be that of the majority, has no right to be the predominant opinion. This is a tyrannical phrase, and ought to be banished from our legislation, for if you can apply it in one, you can in all cases: you will then have a predominant religion, a predominant philosophy, and a multitude of predominant systems. Nothing ought to be predominant but justice—nothing is predominant but the right of every one; all the rest is subject to that right, and it is an evident right, and one already consecrated by you "to do every thing that does not hurt another."

Mr. SNOWDEN,

I hand you the annexed sketch, taken from the National Intelligencer of last evening, with a request that you will publish it for the edification of some of the fair ones of this our town, who are quite as fond as those of any other town whatever of talking on the subject adverted to.

It is a good thing, and I can assure you from my own experience, very applicable to this little town.

From the Weekly Magazine.

SKETCH OF MANNERS IN ——.*

I now intend to make some remarks upon the daily observations relative to matches. Not matches made with slivered shingles and brimstone, or matches made in heaven —but such matches as are made every day here on earth by every body except the parties concerned.

It is well known that the female mind is never occupied upon any subject so completely as upon the subject of match-making. You will agree to the truth of this remark, I am sure, if you ever visit the ladies; for you may and will always here this subject introduced in every circle composed of females, into which you may have the felicity of being admitted. Now, if a young fellow is seen going to church with a girl by a female acquaintantance of he or she, it is instantly reported that he is courting she, or paying attention to her—or—he visits her—or—keeps her company, &c. &c. &c. Now, the parties who assent to and spread this tale, know nothing about the affair. Why, sir, I happened to call upon Miss Tiffany last Sunday, and, out of mere civility, waited upon her to meeting; and, believe me, sir, on the Monday evening following, I heard it pronounced in three or four different houses, where I called to stop a moment, that I was paying attention to Miss Taffany. Now, sir, so far am I from any such intention, that I always wish the d—l had Miss Taffany, and many other Misses that I wait upon and sometimes see home in the dark. And I write this merely to let the girls know that a man may accompany a girl to meeting in the day time, and even to a night lecture, without—marrying her immediately.

* Here may be inserted by each reader the name of the town or country in which he resides.

BURNS AND MOORE.

Perhaps the most flattering compliment ever payed to the genius of Burns, was by his brother poet Moore, who in a letter to Sir John Stevenson, on the national melodies of Ireland, says, if Burns had been an Irishman, (and I would willingly have given up all our claims upon Ossian for him,) his heart would have been proud of such music, and his genius would have made it immortal."

FISH, FOOD FOR SHEEP.

Alluding to the eastern project of feeding sheep on fish, or refuse herrings, alewives, &c. an Albany paper enquires, "How are the sheep to pick out the bones?

It has been discovered that the gang of counterfeiters who some time since literally inundated New Orleans with one hundred dollar notes of the Louisiana Bank, have also put into circulation, at that place, five dollar notes of the Bank of Orleans, which have been transformed into fifty dollar notes by inserting with much skill and ingenuity an 0 after the 5, and by altering (in the body of the note) the word five into the word fifty.—They are represented to be so admirably executed, that the journals of Orleans, recommend it as a matter of precaution to have all notes endorsed previous to receiving them.

Baltimore, June 3.

Capt. Dexter of the schooner William arrived last evening, states, that the markets at Port-au-Prince were very low and overstocked, except the article of Lumber which was in demand. Coffee was in market in considerable quantities, but the many purchases, (particularly for the European market) kept the price up, and it could not be bought for less than 36 sols, which price was expected to continue for some time.

New-York, May 31.

FROM CUBA.

Capt. Bartlett, of the brig Charlotte, was at Havana on the 19 inst. at which time the reports which had been prevalent of the cession of Cuba had entirely subsided; and the fact of the cession was not now credited by any body there.

From the New-York Gazette, June 1.

Extract of a letter, dated Batavia, 24th of Dec. 1818, to a gentleman in this city.

"We take occasion to advise, that the last sale of Coffee by the Government, consisting of 10,000 peculs, which took place the 12th inst. went off with much spirit, commencing at 26¾ dols. and ending at 33 per pecul, at which latter price about 20 25 lots of 100 peculs each were sold.

"There will be another public sale of 10,000 peculs next month after which but little more can be brought forward until the new crops begin to come in, in April and May.

"Sugar is very scarce at 9½ per pecul.—The quality is not good, owing to the hurry of manufacturers in endeavoring to supply the great demand for that article.

"Rice is of ready sale here at 48 dols. to 50 dols. per coyang of 27 peculs.

"Pepper is held at 16½ dols. to 17 dols. per pecul, and but little in the place."

SPARTAN OATH

The following is a specimen of the laconic manner in which state business was dispatched among the Spartans, translated from the Latin:—"Who are as good as you, do constitute you our king; and if you defend our liberties, we will defend you: if not, not." [London paper.

Lectures

ON THE RUNNING HAND,

Price 3 dollars for seven lectures, each two hours at the Writing Room, next door to the Marshall's Office, Washington street.

IMMEDIATELY after a former advertisement, I engaged a sufficient number of scholars, and have since refused the applications of many, because they applied too late to go through the whole course of writing on the different Hands. But to meet the wishes of many, I propose to give lectures on the Running Hand only during the remaining ten days that my engagements elsewhere permit me to continue in this place. And notwithstanding the statement may appear extravagant and even impossible to many who know nothing about it, yet is a fact that not only in 12 or 14 hours, but even in 4 hours, I will produce a change in a person's writing from a cramped, slow, clovenly hand to an easy, free, neat running hand, entirely different from the former one. Those who please may try the experiment. Besides acquiring the running hand perfectly and permanently, each gentleman will be taught the true method of making, holding the pen, sitting at the writing desk, &c. Specimens of the running hand acquired in a few hours may be seen at the writing room.

BY virtue of a deed of trust from Daniel McPherson and wife to the subscriber to secure to the Mechanics' Bank of Alexandria the payment of a debt due from John McPherson and Son, will be sold at public sale on the premises, on THURSDAY, the 10th day of June next, a certain tract of land, known by the name of ROUND-HILL, in the county of Fairfax, lying on both sides of the Colchester road, adjoining the lands of George Triplett, Dr. Richard Mason, and others, containing 164¼ acres, be the same more or less. This land is handsomely situated, and has lately received considerable improvements. Few farms of its size in the county, perhaps, present higher inducements to a tasteful proprietor.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 150 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and house hold furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow,—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks.
